How Should I Know?

A Program for Jewish Men with Spouses/Partners of Other Religious Backgrounds

Jewish men in committed interfaith relationships often need to explain to their partners:

- Why you want a Jewish home or to raise Jewish children (even though you may not be religious);
- Which celebrations of other religions you are or are not comfortable with in your home;
- How to navigate the larger family, including in-laws, and the organized Jewish community.

The “How Should I Know” course provides information and strategies to address these and other important questions.

This FREE, 3-session program will be held on the evenings of November 2, 9 and 16 at the YM-YWHA of North Jersey, 1 Pike Drive, Wayne, NJ. For more information, please contact: Karen Brand at 973-595-0111 or kbrand@jfsnorthjersey.org, or visit
